Welcome

Dear Lions Light Academy Families,

Welcome. We're grateful you're joining us on this Christ-presence-centered journey of learning, growth, and community.

At Lions Light Academy we believe education is more than academics. It's an opportunity to nurture hearts, minds, and spirits in the living presence of God.

Our vision is to see each child flourish with curiosity and courage, discovering the beauty of God's creation while building meaningful connections with others. Together as parents, mentors, and co-laborers, we create an environment where every gift is celebrated and every family has a role in shaping our Academy.

Together, we walk in Christ's presence, teach with joy, and serve with love.

With gratitude and anticipation,

Damian Brockway — Director

Our Vision

We see education as a Christ-inspired seed, sown with care to cradle the resplendent light Jesus has poured into our hearts. Our core burns with the wild wonder and awe that dances in the eyes of every child, a spark of curiosity ready to ignite. Our calling is to spread that light everywhere we go. We are constructionists and as such, we weave vibrant tapestries of experiential learning, forging bold connections that empower young minds to soar!

We hold fast to the truth that experience, in its raw and holy beauty, need not be unraveled to be understood. God's presence pulses perceptibly through the glory of His creation. With hearts on fire for God, we teach stewardship as a sacred calling, embracing every resource, every moment as a God given gift to cherish. Our goal is to guide our children to pursue knowledge with passion. To ignite the fire within, that turns learning into a profound act of worship that echoes into the hallways of eternity.

We are Lions Light Academy.

"It is the glory of God to conceal a matter, but the glory of kings is to search out a matter."
— Proverbs 25:2

How We Teach

Our curriculum is flexible, student-led, and inspired by Finland's model of education. We're constructionists — we believe students learn by building, making, and doing, not by absorbing.

Guiding principles: Experience First · Ask, Don't Tell · Faith Woven In · Whole Child Focus

Every lesson flows from Faith → Learning → Reflection. Instead of telling students how plants grow, we let them plant seeds, watch light and water do their work, and marvel at God's design through discovery.

We measure growth over grades. Learning shows up as curiosity, engagement, and transformation rather than a score.

And we push. Excellence here isn't perfectionism and it isn't competition — we never rank children against each other. We ask each student for their whole effort, measured against their own ceiling. A student should leave a class knowing an adult believed they could do hard things.

What a Co-op Day Looks Like

Co-op days run from 8:45 a.m. arrival to 1:45 p.m. cleanup, beginning with worship and devotions, then four 45-minute class periods across our three age tracks — Elementary, Junior High, and High School — with snack breaks and lunch.

The full schedule is a separate one-page document in our Resources library.

What Your Family Commits To

Every family teaches, co-teaches, or volunteers one day a week. Lions Light runs on parents. There is no staff to fall back on, and consistent attendance is what makes the co-op stable enough to be worth attending.

Contributions can be teaching a class, assisting a lead teacher, supervising and covering transitions, helping with field trips, or administrative support.

Every adult in a teaching or volunteer role completes a background check, renewed every two years.

There is no tuition. We charge one supply fee per family, per year — $200, waived for families who lead a class. Every dollar goes back to the host church or to classroom supplies and equipment. Nothing is kept as profit and no one is paid from it. It is a participation fee, not a tax-deductible donation.

What Your Student Commits To

Learning is the student's work, and nobody can do it for them. Teachers teach. Parents support. The student shows up ready, attempts the work, and stays engaged in the room.

Lions Light Academy is a co-op of active learners. A student who will not take part in learning cannot remain in the program. We say that plainly here so it is never a surprise later.

Our teachers know their students and will use judgment when something real is going on in a child's life. That judgment belongs to the teacher. Hard weeks happen and are met with grace, but a hard week is not a standing exemption from the work.

On correction: our approach is restorative. We correct in order to keep a student, not to build a case against them. Restoration is real and it is offered to every student — but it is not automatic. A student who has done damage owns what happened, makes repair, and meets the terms of a written plan before they are restored.

The Code of Conduct and the Escalation & Discipline Policy set all of this out in full. Both are signed at enrollment.

A Note on Maine Requirements

Lions Light Academy is a supplemental co-op. We are not your child's school of record.

Each family remains responsible for its own Maine homeschool notification, assessment, and record-keeping. Enrolling here does not satisfy any state requirement.

Our Maine Homeschool Checklist and High School Credit Summary are in the Resources library to help, but the responsibility stays with you.

Questions

Email lionslightacademy2025@gmail.com or ask any co-op leader on a co-op day.

We would rather answer a question twice than have a family wondering.

"Teaching is lighting the way — not with answers, but with the courage to search."
